

ECCK HR & Compliance Forum: Resetting Normal: Defining the New Era of Work

EVENT OUTLINE

The pandemic has brought about a quick and great change in the way of working. Although these new changes have resulted in various challenges at first, industry has adapted to new working practices and is seeking to adopt more efficient and effective models. It is important for industry to be mindful of the complexity in future of work from burnout to hybrid working models and re-assess their existing practices to drive employees’ continous commitment and productivity.

For the second session of HR & Compliance forum, we invite Adecco Korea to share their insights on hybrid working model beyond to their recent research on "2021 Resetting Normal". We warmly welcome all HR and Compliance experts of ECCK members to attend and hear from an expert speaker and share your own experience.
