

ECCK HR & Compliance Forum:

Korean FTC Compliance: Information Exchange as a Cartel?

EVENT OUTLINE

Recently, many meaningful changes were made to the Korean competition law, and one of them was the inclusion of information exchange as a type of cartel. For the third session of HR & Compliance forum, compliance experts from Shin & Kim were invited to discuss what information exchange among competitors would be considered problematic under the amended competition law as well as several key compliance takeaways for companies doing business in Korea.

We warmly welcome all HR and Compliance experts of ECCK members to attend and hear from an expert speaker and share your own experience.
